

PRESS RELEASE – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 14, 2005

Cal Poly Grad Joins the Great Park Conservancy Board

Rick T. Hume ASLA ('76 Landscape Architecture) has joined the Board of Directors of the Great Park Conservancy, which supports the development of the Orange County Great Park with a comprehensive strategy of public education and community outreach. As a member of the Conservancy's Board of Directors, Mr. Hume will help to lead the Conservancy in its support a world class urban park on the 4,693 acre site of the former Marine Corps Air Station at El Toro, CA.

Rick T. Hume ASLA

Mr. Hume is the principal landscape architect on over 50 park and recreation projects as well as many prominent planned communities, resorts and international theme parks. Mr. Hume is also the former President of the Southern California Chapter of the American Society of Landscape Architects. His work in the profession of landscape architecture has won honors and recognition from the California Parks and Recreation Society, the Sigma Lambda Alpha Honor Society, the American Planning Association and the American Society of Landscape Architects.

For more information about the Orange County Great Park and the Great Park Conservancy, please visit <http://www.orangecountygreatpark.org/index.html>

For more information, please contact:

Carol Simon, Executive Director of the Great Park Conservancy P) 949-544-5410

Rick Hume ASLA, Frederick Thomas Hume - Landscape Architecture, Planning and Design – P) 949-376-3998